1. GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF ONLINE BANKING SERVICES AGREEMENT

A. What This Agreement Covers

This Agreement between you and Bank of Colorado governs the use of the Online Financial Services. These Services permit U.S.-based Bank of Colorado customers (consumers and business customers who are account owners) to perform a number of banking functions through the use of a personal computer through a Mobile Device, on accounts linked to the Service. Unless indicated otherwise by the context, "linked Bank of Colorado accounts" or "linked accounts" refers to all of your U.S.-based accounts with Bank of Colorado that you have linked to Online Banking Services. When used in this Agreement, the term "business" includes sole proprietors, non-consumer business entities, and individual owners of the business, unless the context indicates otherwise.

B. Accepting the Agreement

When you use any of the Online Banking Services described in this Agreement or authorize others to use them, you agree to the terms and conditions of the entire Agreement.

C. Relation To And Conflict With Other Agreements

Your use of Online Banking Services may also be affected by a deposit or other agreement between us for your linked Bank of Colorado accounts. When you link an account to Online Financial Services, you do not change the agreements you already have with us for that account. You should review those and other Bank of Colorado account-related agreements and fee schedules for any applicable fees, for limitations on the number of transactions you can make, liability rules for electronic fund transfers, and for other restrictions that might impact your use of an account with Online Banking Services.

If this Agreement conflicts with another agreement, or another agreement has terms that are not addressed in this Agreement, then the other agreement will control and take precedence, unless this Agreement specifically states otherwise. The other agreement will only control with respect to the Eligible Account or Online Financial Service it is associated with, and only to the extent necessary to resolve the conflict or inconsistency.

Additional provisions regarding online services or features that appear in another agreement covering your Eligible Account or Online Financial Service, but not in this Agreement, will apply. For example, if your Eligible Account or Online Financial Service is covered by another agreement and a dispute arises between you and us under that agreement, then the dispute resolution and governing law provisions in that other agreement will control.

Further, the original version of this Agreement is in the English language. Any discrepancy or conflicts between the English version and any other language version will be resolved with reference to and by interpreting the English version.

2. ONLINE BANKING SERVICES

A. Online Banking for Consumers

You may use Online Banking Services to:

- Transfer funds between your linked Bank of Colorado accounts on either a one-time or recurring basis, including as a payment to a linked installment loan or mortgage.
- Transfer funds between linked Bank of Colorado business accounts and linked personal accounts.
- Transfer funds from your linked Bank of Colorado personal or small business accounts to most Bank of Colorado personal or small business deposit accounts.
- Bill payment services.
- View current balance information for your linked Bank of Colorado accounts.
- Review available transactions for your linked accounts.
- Perform self-service account maintenance such as re-ordering checks, stopping payment on checks, and changing your address and phone number
- Send us secure online mail messages and questions regarding your Online Banking Services.

Some of the above services may not be available for certain accounts or customers, or if you access Online Banking through the mobile banking app or through the web.

We will update our Website if we eliminate or introduce new features to the Service.

B. Owners, Authorized Representatives

If an Eligible Account is owned by more than one person, or has more than one Authorized Representative, each person individually may provide us with instructions, make any decision, obtain any information or make any request associated with the Eligible Account and related Online Financial Services, to the extent allowed by the applicable agreement(s) covering the Eligible Account.

If you make someone an Authorized Signer on a Business Eligible Account, and he/she is enrolled in the Service, and we will treat him/her as an Authorized Representative. If you tell us that an Authorized Representative is no longer authorized, we will consider his/her transactions unauthorized only when: (i) you tell us that you did not want or intend the transaction(s); and (ii) the Authorized Representative performs them after you let us know he/she is no longer authorized; and (iii) we have reasonable opportunity to act on your notification.

For more details, please see the agreements for your Eligible Accounts and Online Financial Services.

C. Signature Requirement Waiver

Any requirement to verify two or more signatures on any item (such as a check) does not apply to electronic or telephone transfers. This means that you are allowing any Authorized Signer on your Eligible Account to individually make electronic or telephone transfers, even though his/her authority to transfer or withdraw funds from your account by some other means (such as by check) must be exercised jointly with one or more other persons.

This provision controls and takes precedence over any conflicting provision in any other agreements you have with us.

D. Acknowledgements

You agree that:

- Each of your Authorized Representatives will be acting as your agent and will be bound by this Agreement and any separate agreement governing the Eligible Account or Online Financial Service.
- We may rely and act on the instructions of any Authorized Representative.
- All transactions that an Authorized Representative performs on an Eligible Account or Online Financial Service, including those you did not want or intend, are transactions authorized by you.
- You are solely responsible for those transactions.
- You are solely responsible for supervising all of your Authorized Representatives and monitoring the actions they take on your behalf.

3. ACCESS

A. Accessing Eligible Accounts

You authorize Bank of Colorado to provide access to your Eligible Accounts and Online Financial Services through the Service. You may access your Eligible Accounts and Online Financial Services through the Website to obtain information and perform transactions authorized on the Website.

To access your Eligible Accounts and Online Financial Services through the Website, you need a username, a password and required hardware and software. To complete your enrollment in the Service, you will be required to validate your email address. Additionally, you are required to maintain an email address that is continuously operational to receive email communications from us in order to continue to access your Eligible Accounts and Online Financial Services through the Website.

You also have to comply with any other security procedures we may establish. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, you will generally be able to access your Eligible Accounts and Online Financial Services through the Website seven days a week, 24 hours a day. Sometimes the Service may be unavailable due to system maintenance or circumstances beyond our control. You must provide all computer, telephone and other equipment, software (other than any software provided by us) and services you need to access the Service.

When using the Mobile Banking Service, you may generally access certain Eligible Accounts through the mobile browser, our mobile apps, or get certain information through text messaging on a Mobile Device.

B. Terminating Access

Voluntarily. If you close all your Eligible Accounts and terminate your Online Financial Services, or withdraw from the Service, we may suspend or terminate your access without prior notification. If you close your Eligible Accounts, you could also lose access to your Online Financial Services, and we may terminate your access to the Service. We are not required to reinstate or re-activate your access. If you have no Eligible Accounts linked to the Service, or do not use the Service for a period of 6 consecutive months, we may at our discretion terminate your access without prior notification.

For Violating the Agreement. If you violate any terms of this Agreement (including non-payment of fees under any applicable fee schedule) or any other agreement you have with us, you agree that we may suspend or terminate your access to any of your Eligible Accounts and Online Financial Services. We are not required to reinstate or re-activate your access.

4. ELIGIBLE ACCOUNTS – ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

A. Removing Online Access

If you want to remove online access for an Eligible Account, email us through the Service or call either 1.800.227.7715 or your local Bank of Colorado branch.

B. Electronic Funds Transfer Timing

Unless the Website or our other agreements with you say otherwise, electronic funds transfers completed through the Service before the transfer cut-off time on a Business Day will be posted to your Eligible Account the same day. Credit card, line of credit, loan and mortgage transactions may take up to three (3) Business Days to process, but will post as of the Business Day the transaction was made.

All transfers completed after the transfer cut-off time on a Business Day, or on a day that is not a Business Day, will be posted on the next Business Day.

Please note that electronic funds transfers:

- Between financial institutions will be processed, completed and posted by the other institution following its own rules.
- Initiated through the Service for person-to-person payments may have different transfer cut-off or posting times.

C. System Maintenance

Sometimes you may not be able to access one or more of your Eligible Accounts or Online Financial Services due to system maintenance or circumstances beyond our control. During these times, you may be able to call Online Customer Service at 1.800.227.7715, use a Bank of Colorado ATM or visit a Bank of Colorado branch location to obtain information about your Eligible Accounts.

D. Account Linking and Display

Once you enroll for the Service, your Eligible Accounts will be available. Eligible Accounts that are linked and displayed through the Mobile Banking Service may be subject to certain limitations and restrictions.

Eligible Accounts will appear on your Account Summary page on the Website without regard to who else may have an ownership interest in each Eligible Account.

E. Emails and Text Messages

You authorize us to send emails and text messages to others on your behalf, if needed to carry out your instructions regarding an Eligible Account or Online Financial Service. These communications may identify you by name and may state that we are sending them on your behalf and according to your instructions.

5. TRANSFERS (DOES NOT APPLY TO TRANSFERS OUTSIDE BANK OF COLORADO)

A. Processing of Transfer Requests

General

Transfers can be made in two ways, either on a one-time or recurring basis. One-time transfers may be immediate or scheduled for a future date. The recurring transfer feature may be used when a set amount is transferred at regular intervals. For example, a $100 transfer from a checking to a savings account that occurs every two weeks.

One-time immediate transfers can be made from a linked Bank of Colorado checking, savings, money market, or line of credit to most linked Bank of Colorado accounts.

One-time scheduled and recurring transfers can be made from a linked Bank of Colorado checking, savings, or money market account to a linked checking or savings account.

Transfers can be made from a linked Bank of Colorado personal checking, savings, money market or line of credit account to most personal checking, savings, or money market accounts of other Bank of Colorado customers. Some account types, including those with foreign addresses, cannot be set up to receive funds.

Transfers from a deposit account are immediately reflected in the account's available balance. Transfers from a line of credit account are immediately reflected in the account's available credit amount.

Scheduled and Recurring Transfers

Transfers scheduled for a weekend or a non-bank business day will be processed on the prior bank business day. All other scheduled and recurring transfers will be processed from the funding account at the beginning of the business day requested.

Transfers to Credit Accounts

Funds transferred as a payment to a line of credit, installment loan or mortgage account before 9:00 p.m. CT will be credited with the date the payment is submitted. Transfer payments submitted after 9:00 p.m. CT will be credited with the next day's date. Updates to account balances, funds availability, and transaction posting may take up to two (2) bank business days.

Transfers to Deposit Accounts

Funds transferred to a deposit account prior to 9:00 p.m. CT on a business day will appear with the same day's date in the deposit account transaction history.

- Please note, transfers to any deposit account on a Saturday, Sunday or bank holiday, will appear with the next Business Day's date in the deposit account transaction history.
- All transfers submitted to a deposit account (such as checking, savings, money market) are immediately reflected in the account's available balance.

6. BANK-TO-BANK TRANSFER SERVICE

A. Description

Bank-to-Bank Transfer Service ("Transfer Service") lets you transfer funds:

- From your Bank of Colorado checking and/or savings accounts to your accounts at other United States financial institutions ("Financial Institutions");
- From your accounts at other Financial Institutions to your Bank of Colorado checking and/or savings accounts;

In this Section 6, "Account(s)" refers to each of the accounts referenced above.

In addition to the terms of the Agreement, your use of the Transfer Service is subject to:

- Terms or instructions appearing on the screen when using the Transfer Service; and
- Our rules, procedures and policies and the account agreements applicable to the Accounts used in the Transfer Service.

To use the Transfer Service you must:

- Be of legal age and a resident of the United States;
- Have at least one Account with us;
- Agree to the e-Sign Consent and this Agreement; and
- Be enrolled in a Service.

If your Accounts and/or Service are terminated for any reason, you will have no further right or access to use the Transfer Service.

B. Information Authorization for Non-Bank of Colorado Accounts

We may verify the Accounts that you add to the Transfer Service. You authorize us to validate the Accounts in a manner selected by us, including through the use of a test transfer, in which one or more low value payments credited to and debited from your non-Bank of Colorado Account. Once the test transfer is complete we may ask you to access this Account to tell us the amount of the test credit or debit or any additional information reported by your Financial Institution with this test transfer. We may also verify Accounts by requiring you to submit proof of ownership of the Account(s).

C. Accounts

By using the Transfer Service, you represent and warrant to us that:

- You own or are an authorized signer on the Account held with us and at the non-Bank of Colorado Financial Institution;
- Your Account at the non-Bank of Colorado Financial Institution is a United States account;
- Your Account and applicable law permit transfers;
- You have the right to authorize and permit us to access your Accounts to complete such funds transfers or for any other purpose authorized by this section;
- By disclosing to us and authorizing us to use Account information and complete the transfer you are not violating any third party rights; and
- Information you provide to us is true, current, accurate and complete.

You hereby authorize and permit us to use information you submit to make transfers and to configure the Transfer Service to be compatible with the Accounts.

At all times your relationship with each non-Bank of Colorado Financial Institution is independent of Bank of Colorado and your use of the Transfer Service. We will not be responsible for any acts or omissions by the non-Bank of Colorado Financial Institution, including without limitation, any modification, interruption or discontinuance of any Account by such Financial Institution, or by any other third party.

Not all types of accounts are eligible for funds transfer. We may decline the use of any Account that we believe may present a risk to you and/or us. Be sure to check with your Financial Institution for restrictions regarding transfers among your retirement (401k, IRA, etc.), savings, trusts, loans, custodial, business, corporate and other account types. Excess activity fees may apply if you exceed federally- mandated transaction limits for savings accounts. For more information, please refer to your account agreement with the Financial Institution that maintains your Account.

D. Transfer Types and Limits

Type of Transfers. We may add new features to the Transfer Service, including a next day service and a higher limit service. You will be approved or declined for any such additional service at our sole discretion and additional terms and conditions may apply. We may at any time decline a funds transfer that we believe may violate applicable law.

Frequency of Transfers. We do not limit the number of funds transfers you may make, however, you may not make funds transfers in excess of the number of funds transfers allowed by the rules and regulations governing the applicable Accounts. For security and risk management reasons we may modify the limit, the frequency and the dollar amount of transfers you can make using our Transfer Service. The limits on the frequency and dollar amount of transfers are solely for the protection of Bank of Colorado.

Dollar Amount of Transfers. You may not make funds transfers in excess of dollar limits for the Transfer Service. We reserve the right to change the dollar amount of funds transfers you are permitted to make using our Transfer Service. In the event that your use of the Transfer Service has been suspended and reinstated as provided below (see Section 6.G Suspension and Reinstatement of Transfer Service), you understand and agree that your use of the Transfer Service thereafter may be subject to lower dollar amount limitations than would otherwise be permitted by us.

Transfers Subject to the Rules of the Accounts. All funds transfers are subject to the rules and regulations governing the relevant Accounts. You may not initiate any funds transfers from or to an Account that are not allowed under the rules or regulations applicable to such Account including rules or regulations designed to prevent the transfer of funds in violation of the Office of Foreign Asset Control (OFAC) regulations.

Failure or Rejection of Transfers. Upon learning that the funds transfer could not be completed, we may, but are not required to, make a reasonable effort to complete the transfer again. If the funds transfer fails, we will notify you to contact your non-Bank of Colorado Financial Institution to learn more about the failure.

We reserve the right to decline (i) any funds transfer or (ii) to submit funds transfer instructions or orders or (iii) to carry out change or cancellation requests.

You represent and warrant to us that you have enough money in the non-Bank of Colorado Accounts to make any funds transfer you request that we make on your behalf through the Transfer Service. If we receive a transfer request against your Account and there are not enough available funds in your Account to cover the transfer, we may at our sole discretion:

- Cover the transfer in accordance with the terms of any written overdraft protection plan that you and we have established;
- Cover the transfer and create an overdraft to your Account; or
- Decline the transfer.

We may make the decision regardless of whether we may have previously established a pattern of honoring or dishonoring overdrafts. Fees may vary depending on the action we take. Any negative balance on your Account is immediately due and payable, unless we agree otherwise in writing, and you agree to reimburse us for the costs and expenses (including attorney fees and expenses) we incur in recovering the negative balance (including overdraft and associated fees).

Your Right to Cancel a Transfer. Payments that are in process cannot be cancelled or stopped. When the Transfer Service offers recurring and/or future one time transfers, you may cancel any transfer as long as we receive the request before the process date of the one-time transfer or the next scheduled recurring transfer. For recurring transfers, you may cancel only the next scheduled transfer or the entire recurring transfer schedule. After the entire recurring transfer schedule is cancelled, all future transfers will be cancelled and you must reschedule it if you want transfers to be made in the future.

You may cancel a transfer by logging on to the Transfer Service or by contacting us at 1.800.227.7715 or your local Bank of Colorado branch.

E. Authorization

You agree that your transfer instructions are the authorization for us to complete the funds transfer. You authorize us to select any means to execute your funds transfer instructions, such as the Automated Clearing House (ACH), wire transfer or check. You will be bound by the rules and regulations that govern the applicable funds transfer systems, such as CHIPS or ACH rules as published by the National Automated Clearinghouse Association (NACHA).

We will make all reasonable efforts to process your transfer requests in a timely manner, however, we reserve the right to hold funds pending settlement or for such period of time as we deem necessary, in our sole discretion, to cover items which may be returned unpaid. For Bank of Colorado Accounts, any interest earned on such funds during the hold period will remain the property of Bank of Colorado. To complete your funds transfer we may utilize ACH transfers, which will result in a debit to one of your Accounts and a credit to another of your Accounts. All Bank of Colorado ACH transfers go through a Bank of Colorado transfer account. For ACH debit entries (which debit your other Account and credit your Bank of Colorado Account), Bank of Colorado typically holds funds for 3-4 Business Days to make sure that the item will not be returned unpaid before we will credit your Account. If the ACH transaction is returned for any reason and the payment has been credited to your Account, you authorize us to debit your Account, in whole or in part, for the amount of the returned item and for any returned item fee.

We will notify you of such charge in advance of the transaction. If you choose to proceed with the transaction, you authorize us to debit your Account in the amount indicated.

F. Transfer Service Changes and Discontinuation

Depending on the type of transfer or the type of your Bank of Colorado Account we may charge fees, for the use of the Transfer Service, and for any additional services or features that we may introduce. We will notify you of such charge in advance of the transaction. If you choose to proceed with the transaction, you authorize us to debit your Account in the amount indicated. You agree to pay all fees associated with the use of the Transfer Service. We may modify or discontinue the Transfer Service or your Account(s) with us, with or without notice, without being liable to you, any other user or any third party.

G. Suspension, Reinstatement and Termination

Without limiting any other right or remedy that we may have under this Agreement or otherwise, we reserve the right to suspend your right to use the Transfer Service, immediately and without prior notice to you, if we incur a problem with your use of the Transfer Service. You understand and agree that such action is reasonable for us to take in order to protect Bank of Colorado from loss.

In the event of such suspension, you may request reinstatement of your service by contacting us at 1.800.227.7715 or your local Bank of Colorado branch. In our sole discretion we may grant or deny reinstatement of your use of the Transfer Service. If we agree to reinstate you, we may initially reinstate your Transfer Service subject to lower per-transaction and monthly dollar limits and/or with other restrictions. Based upon your subsequent usage of the Transfer Service, we may restore your ability to complete transfers subject to such higher limits as may then be in effect.

Subject to applicable law, we may terminate your right to use the Transfer Service at any time and for any reason, including if in our sole judgment we believe you:

- Engaged in conduct or activities that violate any of the terms of this Agreement or our rights; or
- Provided us with false or misleading information; or
- Interfered with other users or the administration of the Transfer Services.

H. No Unlawful or Prohibited Use

As a condition of using the Transfer Service, you warrant to us that you will not use the Transfer Service for any purpose that is unlawful or is not permitted, expressly or implicitly, by the terms of this Transfer

Service or by any applicable law or regulation. You further warrant and represent that you will not use the Transfer Service in any manner that could damage, disable, overburden, or impair the Transfer Service or interfere with any other party's use of the Transfer Service. You may not obtain or attempt to obtain any materials or information through any means not intentionally made available or provided for through the Transfer Service. These warranties and representations will remain in full force and effect even if this Agreement terminates for any reason.

I. Account Number Policy

If the instructions for a transfer under the Transfer Service identify a bank or beneficiary by name and account number, we or the relevant Financial Institution may execute those instructions by reference to the number only, even if the number does not correspond to the name. You agree that neither we nor the relevant Financial Institution will have responsibility to investigate discrepancies between names and numbers.

J. Your Responsibility for Errors

We must rely on the information you provided, and you authorize us to act on any instruction, which has been or reasonably appears to have been sent by you, to submit funds transfer instructions on your behalf. Financial Institutions receiving the funds transfer instructions may rely on such information. We are not obliged to take any further steps to confirm or authenticate such instructions and will act on them without getting further confirmation. If you provide us with incorrect information or if there is any error in your instruction we will make all reasonable efforts to reverse or delete such instructions, but you accept full responsibility for losses resulting from any of your errors, duplication, ambiguities or fraud in the information that you provide. If any information you provide is untrue, inaccurate, not current or incomplete, without limiting other remedies, we may recover from you any costs or losses incurred as a direct or indirect result of the inaccurate or incomplete information.

We are not responsible for errors, delays and other problems caused by or resulting from the action or inaction of Financial Institutions holding the non-Bank of Colorado Account. Although we will try to assist you in resolving any such problems, you understand that any such errors, delays or other problems are the responsibility of the relevant Financial Institution. Any rights you may have against a Financial Institution for such errors, delays or other problems are subject to the terms of the agreements you have with such Financial Institution, including any time limits during which complaints must be made. Please see EFT Provisions (Consumers) in Section 7 in this Agreement for terms and conditions that apply to electronic funds transfers that debit or credit a consumer checking, savings or other asset account and are subject to Federal Reserve Board's Regulation E.

K. Our Liability

If we do not provide a funds transfer instruction on time, if we cause an incorrect amount to be removed from an Account or if we cause funds from an Account to be transferred to any account other than the Account specified in the applicable funds transfer instruction, we shall be responsible for returning the improperly transferred funds and/or for directing any misdirected funds to the proper Account.

We are not liable for any costs, fees, losses or indirect, special or consequential damages of any kind incurred as a result of:

- Our debit and/or credit or inability to debit and/or credit the accounts in accordance with your funds transfer instructions; or
- Inaccuracy, incompleteness or misinformation contained in the information retrieved on the accounts; or
- Charges imposed by any non-Bank of Colorado Financial Institution or by applicable law; or
- Funds transfer limitations set by the non-Bank of Colorado Financial Institutions or applicable law; or
- Not enough money in your Account to make the funds transfer; or
- Transfers exceeding the credit limit on any applicable overdraft line; or
- System failures at a non-Bank of Colorado Financial Institution and we are unable to complete the transfer; or
- Circumstances beyond our control (such as fire or flood) prevent the transfer, despite reasonable precautions that we have taken; or

- Third party caused, including your non-Bank of Colorado Financial Institution; or
- Any further limitations on liability as otherwise stated in the agreement(s) governing your Account(s) with us.

There may be additional exceptions to our liability stated in this Agreement. Except as otherwise required by law, we will in no event be liable for any losses and damages other than those arising from gross negligence or willful misconduct on our part or if we breach a representation or warranty of hereunder.

L. Security

Bank of Colorado protects your personal information and privacy as disclosed in the Privacy Policy found on bankofcolorado.com.

Security Procedures. The Financial Institution at which your account is maintained may contact us to verify the content and authority of funds transfer instructions and any changes to those instructions. In connection with the Transfer Service we may provide to that Financial Institution such information as may be required to verify the instructions and the verification may constitute a valid security procedure under the rules governing that Account.

Deviating from Security Procedures. You permit us to authorize your non-Bank of Colorado Financial Institution to accept funds and transfer instructions in accordance with any authorization procedures you and such Financial Institution have agreed upon, or that we, on your behalf, and such Financial Institution have agreed upon, without verifying the instructions under the established security procedures, regardless of whether you agreed to the security procedures or we agreed on your behalf. In addition, we may authorize such Financial Institutions to charge and debit your Accounts based solely on these communications.

Additional Provisions for Business Accounts. You agree that we are liable only for damages required to be paid under Uniform Commercial Code ("UCC") Article 4A. In no event will we be liable for any special, indirect or consequential loss, damage, costs or expense of any nature, including, without limitation, lost profits, even if we have been informed of the possibility of such damages, except as may be required by law.

7. ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFER PROVISIONS

A. Applicability

The provisions in this Section 7 apply only to electronic funds transfers ("EFT(s)") that debit or credit a Consumer's checking, savings or other asset account and are subject to the Federal Reserve Board's Regulation E. When applicable, we may rely on any exceptions to the provisions in this Section 7 that are covered in Federal Reserve Board Regulation E. All terms in this section not defined in this Agreement but defined in Regulation E will have the meaning given in Regulation E.

B. Your Liability

Tell us at once if you believe your card and/or code has been lost or stolen or if you believe that an EFT has been made without your permission using information from your personal check. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. You could lose all the money in your account (plus your maximum overdraft line of credit). If you tell us within two (2) business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your card and/or code, you can lose no more than $50 if someone used your card and/or code without your permission. Also, if you do NOT tell us within two (2) business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your card and/or code, and we can prove we could have stopped someone from using your card and/or code without your permission if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500. If your statement shows transfers that you did not make, including those made by card, code or other means, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within sixty (60) days after the statement was mailed to you, you may not get back any money you lost after the sixty (60) days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us in time.

If a good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time period.

C. Errors/Unauthorized Electronic Funds Transfers

Here's how to notify us when you believe that an error, unauthorized EFT, or unauthorized transfer has been or may have been made:

- Phone: 1.800.227.7715
- Paper Mail: Bank of Colorado PO Box 598 Gretna NE 68028-0598
- Your local Bank of Colorado branch.

We must hear from you no later than sixty (60) days after the date we send the first statement on which the problem or error appeared. When contacting us about an error or with questions, please tell us:

- Your name and account number (if any).
- About the error or the transfer you question, and clearly explain why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
- The dollar amount and date of the suspected error.

If you report a problem by phone, we may need you to submit your complaint or question in writing within ten (10) Business Days. We will determine whether an error occurred within ten (10) Business Days after we hear from you, and will promptly correct any error. If we need more time to conduct our investigation, we will notify you of our need for an extension of up to forty-five (45) days. If we decide to do this, we will credit your account within ten (10) Business Days for the amount you think is in error, so you can use the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and do not receive it within ten (10) Business Days, we may not credit your account.

We may permit you to initiate or monitor the status of certain kinds of complaints or questions electronically on the Website. Complaints or questions you initiate via the process we provide on the Website will be considered as written.

For errors involving new accounts, point-of-sale or foreign-initiated transactions, our investigation may take up to ninety (90) calendar days. For new accounts, we may take up to twenty (20) Business Days to credit your account for the amount you think is in error. We will tell you the results within three (3) Business Days after completing our investigation. If we decide that no error occurred, we will send you an explanation. You can ask for copies of the documents that we used in the investigation.

D. Documentation

The cardholder will receive a receipt each time an ATM or in-store kiosk is used to make an electronic transfer to or from your Eligible Account, unless the cardholder is notified otherwise before completing the transaction. The receipt is evidence of the transaction as recorded by the ATM or the Service, however, all transactions are subject to posting, final payment or verification. You can use the receipt to reconcile the statement for the Eligible Account.

You have the right to find out whether an EFT was credited to your Eligible Account. To do so, contact us at the number listed on your statement for your Eligible Account. We will send you a monthly statement if there are EFTs in a particular month. Otherwise, we will send you a statement at least quarterly.

E. Changes to Debit Amounts

If you authorize a person to regularly debit your Eligible Account, and the amount varies from the previous amount debited, he/she must tell you, at least ten (10) days before each debit, when the debit will be made and how much it will be.

F. Acknowledgements

You agree to indemnify and hold us harmless from and against any loss incurred by us if we do not pay a preauthorized EFT because:

- Any of the information relied upon in the stop payment order is incorrect or incomplete; or
- A valid stop payment order is in effect.

8. STOP PAYMENT ORDERS

A. Acceptance of Stop Payment Orders.

If we have not already paid a check that is drawn on an Eligible Account, then at your request and risk we may accept a stop payment order on it. If you request a stop payment on a check in a branch location, we may require identification such as a driver's license or identification card. You may not stop payment on (i) a point of sale transaction, (ii) an ATM withdrawal or transfer, or (iii) a preauthorized EFT.

B. Placing A Stop Payment Order.

We may accept an order to stop payment from any Authorized Representative who has a right to withdraw funds from an Eligible Account. We may require you to complete a form authorizing the order. You must give us sufficient notice and information so that we have a reasonable opportunity both to verify that the item is unpaid and to act on your request. We may charge you a fee for each stop payment order and each renewal of the order.

Because stop payment orders are handled by computers, to be effective, we need specific information to process the request, including the account number, the name of the party to whom the item was made payable, the item number, the exact amount of the item, and the date of the item. We may use only a portion of the required information to identify an item. If you give us the wrong amount or the wrong item number, we may pay the item.

In some cases, we may pay an item even if an order is in effect. For example, if one of our branch locations, without notice of your request, pays a check that you have asked us to stop, we may still pay the check.

A stop payment order generally expires after twelve (12) months. However, we may, in our sole discretion, elect to honor a stop payment order for a longer period of time. If you want the order to continue after twelve (12) months, you must ask us to renew the order. Each request for a renewal is treated as a new order. If you want the order to expire in less than twelve (12) months, you must ask us to cancel the order on or after the date you want it to expire. We may accept a written or oral instruction to cancel the order. A release of the stop payment request may be made only by the person who initiated the stop payment order. Your request to cancel the order is not effective until we have a reasonable opportunity to act on it. We cancel the order automatically when the account on which the item is drawn is closed. If the item is presented to us for payment after the stop payment order expires, we may pay the item. We are not obligated to notify you when a stop payment order expires.

If you stop payment on an item and we incur any damages or expenses because of the stop payment, you agree to indemnify us for those damages or expenses, including attorneys' fees. You assign to us all rights against the payee or any other holder of the item. You agree to cooperate with us in any legal actions that we may take against such persons. You should be aware that anyone holding the item may be entitled to enforce payment against you despite the stop payment order.

Our stop payment cutoff time is one (1) hour after the opening of the next banking day after the banking day on which we receive the item. Additional limitations on our obligation to stop payment are provided by law (e.g., we paid the item in cash or we certified the item).

9. ONLINE STATEMENTS AND DOCUMENTS

A. Description

Many account documents, including statements, tax documents, and legal notices, can be delivered online for certain Eligible Accounts and Online Financial Services. You have the option to view, save, or print PDF versions of your account documents from the Website via desktop, tablet or Mobile Device.

Any legal notices or disclosures about your Eligible Account or Online Financial Service that would normally accompany your paper account statement, or that we would mail to you, may be delivered to you electronically. In some cases, we must continue to mail paper statements, legal notices and disclosures even if you elect to receive them electronically. We may offer you additional options/preferences for delivery of various communications related to your Eligible Accounts or Online Financial Services.

The following is a brief description of the various features of and requirements for using online statements and documents. We may add to, modify, or delete any feature of online statements and documents at our sole discretion.

B. Eligible Accounts

Most Eligible Account statements and documents can be delivered online. You can determine online statement eligibility by signing on to the Website.

C. Enrollment

Online statements and documents are available for certain Eligible Accounts or Online Financial Services if you have completed enrollment in the Service and provided us with a valid email address. We may revoke your online-only statement and document option and change your delivery preference to U.S. Mail as well as suspend your access to your Eligible Accounts or Online Financial Services if you do not maintain a valid email address.

Depending on the Eligible Account or Online Financial Service, one or more of the following may be true:

- Many Eligible Accounts and Online Financial Services automatically come with online-only delivery for statements and documents. This means you will no longer get paper statements and documents, unless required by law. You can change your delivery preference back to U.S. Mail at any time.
- For Eligible Accounts or Online Financial Services that do not automatically come with online-only delivery, you must choose online-only delivery for that Eligible Account or Service.

D. Check Images

For deposit accounts, you may view online images of the individual checks posted to your account.

E. Access

You can access your online statements and documents (including legal notices and disclosures) on the Website. Statements are available online for up to a maximum of 18 months, depending on the type of account enrolled. Statements for some types of Eligible Accounts or Online Financial Services are available for shorter time frames. If you did not choose online-only delivery when the account was first opened, there may be a gap in the historical statements available online for some types of Eligible Accounts.

For some types of Eligible Accounts or Online Financial Services, there may be a delay of up to several weeks after enrollment before you can start viewing statements and documents online. You can still request historical account statements (fees may apply). Please refer to the applicable account agreement and disclosures for details.

We always reserve the right to communicate with you in writing using the U.S. Postal Service, regardless of what other options you have chosen.

F. Terminating Online Documents

We may terminate delivery of online documents to you for one or more Eligible Accounts or Online Financial Services, without notice. As provided in Section 17.B of this Agreement, if you do not access your Eligible Accounts through the Service for any 6-month period, we may terminate your access to all or any part of the Service.

Any Account Information will be considered "sent" on the first Business Day following the date on the communication. Account Information held for pickup or posted on our Website will be deemed to be delivered to and/or received by you when we make it available for pick-up, display it to you or send notice in accordance with this Agreement that it is posted on our Website. Your enrollment in Online Banking Services includes enrollment to receive transaction alerts and notifications ("Alerts"). Alerts are electronic notices from us that contain transactional information about your Eligible Account(s). Alerts must be managed and/or added online through the Service. We may add new alerts from time to time, or cancel old alerts. We usually notify you when we cancel alerts, but are not obligated to do so. We reserve the right to terminate the alerts service at any time without prior notice to you.

Methods of Delivery. We may provide alerts through one or more channels ("endpoints"): (a) a mobile device, by text message, (b) a mobile device, by push notification; (c) an email account, by an e-mail message; or (d) your Online Banking Services message inbox. Please be advised that text or data charges or rates may be imposed by your endpoint service provider. Alert frequency varies by account and preferences. You agree to provide us a valid mobile phone number or email address so that we may send you alerts. If your email address or your mobile device's number changes, you are responsible for informing us of that change. We strive to provide alerts in a timely manner with accurate information. However, you acknowledge and agree that your receipt of any alerts may be delayed or prevented by factor(s) affecting your mobile phone service provider, internet service provider(s) and other factors outside our control. We neither guarantee the delivery nor the accuracy of the contents of each Alert. You agree to not hold Bank of Colorado, its directors, officers, employees, agents, and service providers liable for losses or damages, including attorneys' fees, that may arise, directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, from (a) a non-delivery, delayed delivery, or the misdirected delivery of an Alert; (b) inaccurate or incomplete content in an Alert; or (c) your reliance on or use of the information provided in an Alert for any purpose.

Alert Information. As alerts delivered via SMS, email and push notifications are not encrypted, we will never include your passcode or full account number. You acknowledge and agree that alerts may not be encrypted and may include your name and some information about your accounts, and anyone with access to your alerts will be able to view the contents of these messages.

E. Returned and Unclaimed Information

Unless otherwise prohibited by the laws governing your Eligible Account or Online Financial Service, this subsection (d) applies if Account Information documents are returned or electronic notifications are returned as undeliverable. This means we can stop sending Account Information or electronic notifications to you until you provide a valid postal or valid e-mail address to us.

We may also:

- Destroy Account Information sent to you and returned to us as undeliverable.
- Hold the Account Information for your Account for you to pick up.
- Stop sending the Account Information through current delivery method and use an alternative delivery method. For example, if we send Account Information to you via the U.S. Postal Service, and the information is returned to us as undeliverable on two or more occasions, we may attempt to deliver the information to your e-mail address instead.
- Suspend access to your Eligible Accounts or Online Financial Services.

If we hold Account Information for you to pick up and it remains unclaimed for sixty (60) days, we may send the Account Information to the address reflected in our records for your Eligible Account or destroy it.

F. Contact Information Changes

You must notify us immediately in the event of a change to your address, e-mail address or phone number. Address changes may be initiated:

- At your request, you can instruct us to change the address or e-mail address to which we send notices or Account Information about your Account at any time.
- If we get an address change notice from the U.S. Postal Service.
- If another party in the business of providing correct address information notifies us that the address in our records no longer corresponds to your address.

We may act on instructions purportedly made on your behalf within a reasonable time after we receive them. Unless you instruct us otherwise, we may change the U.S. Postal Service address or e-mail address only for the account(s) you specify, or for all or some of your other account(s) with us.

G. Implementation of Notices

Any notice you send us will not be effective until we actually receive it and have a reasonable opportunity to act on it. If your Eligible Account has multiple Owners, we may send Account Information to any one of them.

You assume the risk of loss in the mail or other transit. Any notice or Account Information we send you will be effective when mailed, sent electronically, or otherwise made available to you.

H. Communicating With Us

The Service provides email forms for you to ask questions or provide comments. The Service also lets you securely communicate sensitive or confidential information for your Bank of Colorado accounts. You can access these email forms after you sign on with your password to a secure session of the Service. To ensure the security of your Eligible Account information, we recommend that you use only these email forms when asking specific questions about covered Eligible Account(s). Use only the secure messaging feature when sharing sensitive or confidential account information about your Bank of Colorado accounts.

You cannot use email to initiate transactions on your Eligible Accounts.

A. Amendments

Except as otherwise required by law, we may in our sole discretion change the terms of this Agreement at any time. This may include adding new or different terms to, or removing terms from, this Agreement.

We will update this Agreement on the Website on or before the effective date that changes are made, unless an immediate change is necessary to maintain the security of the system or unless a law, rule or regulation requires it be updated earlier. If we cannot disclose a change without jeopardizing the security of the system, this Agreement will be updated within thirty (30) days after the change. We will notify you as soon as possible when any changes are made that materially affect your rights, such as changes regarding how your information is maintained or used, or changes to the terms of this Agreement. By continuing to use the Service after we send you notice of any change, you agree to the change.

Changes to fees or terms that apply to Eligible Accounts are governed by the agreement otherwise governing the specific account. Except as otherwise required by law, any change to this Agreement applies only to transactions that occur, or claims that arise, after the amendment becomes effective.

B. Termination

This Agreement will be in effect from the date we accept your enrollment in the Service and at all times while you are using the Service or any Online Financial Service. Unless otherwise required by applicable law, either of us can terminate this Agreement and/or your access to any Eligible Account or Online Financial Service through the Service, in whole or in part, at any time, without notice.

The termination of this Agreement will not end your obligations or our rights under this Agreement before the termination.

To request reinstatement of an Eligible Account or Online Financial Service, call 1.800.227.7715 or your local Bank of Colorado branch. We encourage you to provide notice to us of any violations of the General Terms or the Agreement generally.

Payment Methods and Amounts. There are limits on the amount of money you can send or receive through our Service. Your limits may be adjusted from time-to-time in our sole discretion. For certain Services, you may have the ability to log in to the Site to view your individual transaction limits. We or our Service Provider also reserve the right to select the method in which to remit funds on your behalf through the Service, and in the event that your Eligible Transaction Account is closed or otherwise unavailable to us the method to return funds to you. These payment methods may include, but may not be limited to, an electronic debit, a paper check drawn on the account of our Service Provider, or draft check drawn against your account.

Taxes. It is your responsibility to determine what, if any, taxes apply to the transactions you make or receive, and it is your responsibility to collect, report and remit the correct tax to the appropriate tax authority. We are not responsible for determining whether taxes apply to your transaction, or for collecting, reporting or remitting any taxes arising from any transaction.

Failed or Returned Payment Instructions. In using the Service, you are requesting that we or our Service Provider attempt to make payments for you from your Eligible Transaction Account. The aforesaid amounts will be charged in addition to any NSF charges that may be assessed by us, as set forth in your fee schedule from us (including as disclosed on the Site) or your account agreement with us. You hereby authorize us and our Service Provider to deduct all of these amounts from your designated Eligible Transaction Account, including by ACH debit;
3. Service Provider is authorized to report the facts concerning the return to any credit reporting agency.
